Re: Phillips v. City of New York, 21-CV-8149 (ALC)(SLC)

Dear Judge Carter:

My firm, with co-counsel represents Plaintiffs and the putative class in the case above. I write, with Defendants' consent, to ask for a two-week extension to oppose the pending motion to dismiss.¹ With the extension, the new deadline will be Friday, January 24, 2025.

Per the Court's rules: (1) the original deadline for Plaintiffs' opposition was November 11, 2024, (2) there were two prior requests, (3) those requests were granted, and (4) Defendants consent. This request will not alter any other deadline, so no proposed Revised Scheduling Order is attached.

As always, we thank the Court for its continued time and attention.

Respectfully submitted,

¹ With apologies, for personal medical reasons, the time I had allocated to handle drafting on the opposition over the holidays was ultimately not available. If the Court is inclined not to grant this request, I can submit more details under seal.
